

Values made possible by new methods

Paper was once made by hand—the first printing was done on a hand press—but think what this newspaper would cost if it was made that way!

Why not buy clothes that are produced by scientific methods—that fit, wear and keep on fitting and wearing because they are made right, and at the same time at the least possible cost.

We know that no other clothing makers have followed scientific methods as long or as thoroughly as the makers of Clothcraft—so we have bought Clothcraft Clothes for you and can sell them to you at $10 to $20.

The Spring Styles are ready and they are beauties—we can serve you today.

Albuquerque Election.

Albuquerque, N. M., April 7.—Republican gains featured the city elections in New Mexico today. In this city a Democratic majority of more than 600 two years ago was reversed and D. H. Boatright, Republican, was elected mayor over Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, Democrat, 143 majority. The elections here was complicated by the injection of the question of the abolishment of the redlight district, a strong faction of Mayor Sellers' party bolting from him on account of his stand in favor of segregation and regulation.

The Republicans also elected their candidates for city clerk and treasurer and got an even break on candidates for council.

In Santa Fe, Roman L. Baca, speaker of the New Mexico house of representatives, nominated by a fusion of Democrats and Progressives, was overwhelmingly defeated by State Auditor, W. G. Sargent, Republican. The Republicans carried every ward in the city and elected all their candidates for councilmen. Petitions for prohibition will be circulated in Santa Fe tomorrow.

In Alamogordo and Deming

the old boards of trustees were re-elected with little opposition. Roswell showed normal Democratic majority.

In Socorro, H. B. Bursum, Republican, was elected mayor.

Prohibition Question.

It is amusing to hear that the Mayor or City Council will close the saloons on short notice and that Clovis will soon continue to be wet or go dry. That question could not have been embodied in the present city election for the reason that the question must be decided according to the statutes by special election at least two months distance from any other election. The calling of such an election is not optional with the controlling board of any town, city or village, but is compulsory when asked for by the required number of electors.

Chapter 75 of the Session Laws of 1913 says:

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of a petition by electors equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the votes cast for the candidates receiving the highest number of votes at the last preceding municipal election such question shall by proclamation, be submitted to the electors thereof at a special election to be held not less than one month and no more than two months after the filing of such petition. Provided: No such election shall be held within two months of any other election, and except as herein otherwise specified such elections shall be conducted, the vote canvassed and the result declared in the same manner as provided by law for the government of other municipal elections.

Section 3. No elector signing such petition shall be permitted to withdraw his name therefrom, after the filing thereof, unless the signature was obtained by fraud.

Section four says if a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of prohibition, the municipality shall forthwith pass such ordinance or ordinances as may be necessary to carry such provisions into effect.

Sec. 6. The barter, sale or exchange of intoxicating liquors is hereby prohibited within two miles of the limits of any incorporated city, town, or village, should such city adopt prohibition according to the terms of this act.

Section nine provides a penalty for any violation of the Act, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

Bell District

Rain! Who said it never rains in New Mexico? And such a good rain too. A good 11-2 inches of rain at this place. It has already changed the appearance of things, the grass is green and growing garden truck up and everybody smiling.

A great many are going to plant some of their crop right off now that the ground is in fine condition.

We were very much disappointed in not getting to go to Melrose last Friday, but the rain is worth more to us than the pleasure we would have had.

Our attendance at Sabbath School was not so large last Sunday on account of the weather. We now have our literature for the quarter and hope to have a good school.

Mrs. I. Brasher entertained at Sunday dinner, quite a crowd of both old and young people.

This is our last week of school and our examinations are over and we are glad of it. Our school will close Friday by giving an entertainment. The patrons of the school will be present with their well filled baskets as usual. A good time sure is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Westfall entertained 40 young people at their home on Wednesday night. An April fool party. It was a complete success from start to finish. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.
